

George Clinical announces the appointment of Meelian Hoh as CFO

20 June 2019 | News

Prior to George Clinical, Hoh served as Finance Director for the Asia-Pacific Region of the global Unified Communications company, Mitel

George Clinical, a global scientifically driven CRO has announced the appointment of Meelian Hoh to the role of Chief Financial Officer. With extensive financial management experience spanning more than 20 years, Hoh brings leadership in financial accountability, enterprise system implementation and pharma industry market knowledge to the George Clinical executive team.

"I'm very excited to welcome Meelian to our team. Her impressive experience is invaluable to George Clinical as we embark on ambitious growth that is underpinned by strong fundamentals in scientific expertise and operational excellence," said James Cheong, chief operating officer, George Clinical.

"I was interested in this role with George Clinical because I was inspired by the company's purpose to improve the health of people worldwide. Working with an organisation with global reach conducting meaningful trials and studies, we are able to improve healthcare outcomes across the world, bringing this purpose to life," said Hoh.

Prior to George Clinical, Hoh served as Finance Director for the Asia-Pacific Region of the global Unified Communications company, Mitel. Hoh has also held several financial management positions in the healthcare, technology and manufacturing sectors including: General Manager—Finance for Kincare, CFO for Pelion Group, as well as senior finance roles with Bellwether Pharma, Novartis Pharmaceuticals and Pfizer/Pharmacia.