

Smart i-Oximeter

14 June 2012 | News | By BioSpectrum Bureau

Smart i-Oximeter

Company: Comdek Industrial

Dimension: 11.5*6.5*1.9 cm

Weight: 0.1kg

i-Oximeter, a new generation of intelligent and hand-held oximeter, is specially designed for telemedicine and diagnosis of sleep apnea and disorder.

It features full functions for SpO2 measurements, wireless information transmission and 48 hours capacity of memory. Its Infrared Interface allows data transmission to IR printer and Bluetooth technology provides real-time data transfer to Telemetry Station.

Users can also apply the optional i-Smart Link Software to link with a computer through for data analysis. Its design, with ergonomic shape and user-friendly operation, makes it a helpful instrument for professional purposes and to satisfy the needs of homecare applications.