BioPartnering In a Biotech conference attendees look forward to meetings with potential partners and collaborators from across the globe. During the three days of India Bio@BTS for the first time we are introducing an advanced meeting scheduler platform developed by Inova the global leaders in BioPartnering. The platform allows attendees to search invite companies, accept invitations and conduct meetings virtually, effortlessly. Inova platform facilitated over 50,000 meetings in the recently held largest BIO event in the USA. Inova has worked with world's leading Biotech shows from across continents and for the first time with India's largest biotech event. Biopartnering at India Bio is sure to connect global biotech companies and professionals with Indian Biotech fraternity. Be a Biopartnering delegate, connect with the world and fast track your business.
