BioSpectrum
the business of Bio & Health Sciences
ASIA EDITION

BookDoc to expand to Philippines by collaborating with Childhope Philippines Foundation

June 14, 2021 | News

BookDoc has presence in 25 countries/regions (Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia, Hong Kong and Thailand) and now in the Philippines

BookDoc has announced an expansion to the Philippines via its collaboration with Childhope Philippines Foundation, Inc. BookDoc has signed an MOU with Childhope Philippines Foundation, Inc. in relation to corporate social responsibility (CSR) programmes and promotions.

BookDoc the online platform that operates across the healthcare continuum connecting patients to healthcare professionals anytime and anywhere, while incentivizing people to stay active. BookDoc has presence in 25 countries/regions (Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia, Hong Kong and Thailand).

According to BookDoc's Founder and Chief Executive Officer (CEO), Dato' Chevy Beh, "BookDoc is extremely honoured to collaborate with Childhope Philippines Foundation, Inc. as part of BookDoc's CSR initiatives. We are hoping to increase in terms of subscribers as well as the scope and depth of our services in Philippines."

Dr. Herbert Quilon Carpio, Childhope Philippines Executive Director, said, "This partnership with BookDoc is a welcome opportunity for us to innovate in ways to conduct advocacy and fundraising for our street children beneficiaries. I think that the ideas and projects for cooperation are limitless, and we look forward to more collaborations with BookDoc for the benefit of the vulnerable street children in Metro Manila."

[(Above) from left: Elaine, BookDoc’s Partnership Executive; Dato’ Chevy, BookDoc’s Founder and CEO][(Bottom) from left: Dr. Herbert, Executive Director of Childhope Philippines; Mylene, Resource Mobilization Manager of Childhope Philippines]