Singapore: Quest Diagnostics, a global diagnostic information service provider, has appointed Mr Mark J Guinan as senior VP and chief financial officer.

Since 2010, Mr Guinan has served as CFO for Hill-Rom Holdings, a manufacturer and provider of medical technologies and related services for the healthcare industry.

Previously, he had served in a number of finance and operations roles in a long career at Johnson & Johnson in which he served most recently as chief procurement officer, and earlier as CFO of the pharmaceutical business. Before that, he held a number of financial roles at Procter & Gamble.

"Mark has a strong operational finance background, and his addition to the team will help us drive execution of our strategy," said Mr Steve Rusckowski, president and CEO, Quest.

"This was the critical last hire in our new senior management team, which is comprised of some executives from the company when I joined, and now five new members since last year. I believe that we have assembled the best possible management team that will allow us to execute our five point strategy," he added.
