

Singapore's CBC Group appoints healthcare veteran Abbas Hussain as Operating Partner

04 April 2023 | News

Hussain has more than 30 years of experience in healthcare

Singapore-headquartered asset management firm, CBC Group has announced the appointment of healthcare industry veteran, Abbas Hussain, as Operating Partner.

In this role, Hussain will closely partner with CBC's business teams to identify, assess, and pursue investment opportunities and strategic acquisitions to enhance the value of the firm's existing portfolio.

He has a wealth of experience operating in the healthcare industry, with deep expertise in key areas such as pharmaceuticals and biotech. His knowledge and insights will add significant value to CBC's investment strategy, complementing efforts to expand business and ecosystem across Asia and beyond.

Hussain's more than 30 years of experience in healthcare has seen him helming senior positions at leading international firms such as British pharmaceutical group, GlaxoSmithKline, and US pharmaceutical group, Eli Lilly, where he worked with the company's businesses across the US, Europe, Asia, and Australia. Prior to his current roles with CSL Vifor (formerly Vifor Pharma) Hussain was senior advisor at CBC Group.
