A transformative milestone in SAI's journey toward becoming a global, innovation-led formulations and CDMO platform

SAI Parenterals Limited (SPL), an India-based pharmaceutical formulation company, has announced the acquisition of a 74.6% controlling stake in Noumed Pharmaceuticals, an Adelaide-based pharmaceutical company, for an aggregate sum of Rs 125 crore.

SAI Parenterals has filed its IPO DRHP with SEBI in September 30, 2025 - the offer, with a face value of Rs 5 per equity share, comprises a fresh issue of up to Rs 285 crore and an offer for sale of up to 3,500,000 equity shares by existing shareholders.

Noumed Pharmaceuticals, a company with AUD 60 million in revenue, is a supplier of private label over the counter (OTC) products to pharmacy chains across Australia and New Zealand. The company is currently establishing a state-of-the-art manufacturing facility in Adelaide with an investment of AUD 53 million. The facility is expected to begin commercial operations by the fourth quarter of CY 2026. With a strong portfolio of over 451 product dossiers, Noumed offers substantial breadth across therapeutic categories.

Anil KK, Managing Director, SAI Parenteral's Limited, commented, "This acquisition marks a pivotal and transformative milestone in our journey toward becoming a global, innovation-led formulations and CDMO platform. By combining Noumed's R&D capabilities, distribution network, extensive dossier library, and upcoming manufacturing facility, along with SAI Parenterals' strengths and capabilities in India, we are unlocking significant synergies across the value chain. This partnership enhances our entry into semi- regulated and regulated markets with a wider, more competitive product portfolio."

"The acquisition also strengthens our ability to leverage Noumed's established customer relationships and long-term supply contracts. Supported by Noumed's regulatory capabilities, SAI Parenteral's will further expand its presence across regulated markets, improving both revenue quality and visibility."

Mark Thulborne, Managing Director, Noumed Pharmaceuticals Pty Ltd, commented, "We are excited to formalize this strategic partnership. Having worked with SAI Parenteral's for a considerable time, we are confident that together we can accelerate our product pipeline, benefit from SAI's manufacturing capabilities, and meet growing demand in the Australian,

New Zealand, and global markets. stakeholders."	This collaboration	positions both	companies to	create substantial	long-term value	ofor all
