Under this collaboration, services offered by SCS at no cost, such as Pap smear, Mammogram and Faecal Immunochemical Test, can now be searched through BookDoc's free Apps and Website, BookDoc.com.

Singapore Cancer Society (SCS) and BookDoc, an online healthcare platform with presence in Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong and Thailand, and 17 cities, are entering into a collaboration to widen public access to cancer-related information and services.

Under this collaboration, services offered by SCS at no cost, such as Pap smear, Mammogram and Faecal Immunochemical Test, can now be searched through BookDoc's free Apps and Website, BookDoc.com, anytime and anywhere.

Singapore Cancer Society is a community-based voluntary welfare organisation dedicated to maximising life by minimising the impact of cancer through research, advocacy, public education, screening, financial assistance, patient services and support, and rehabilitation. It is the leading charitable cancer organisation in Singapore, with a reputation for effective programmes for the prevention and screening of cancer.

BookDoc is backed by a diverse group of investors from entrepreneurs to seasoned healthcare and insurance professionals, banker, regulators as well as ICT professionals.
